Don't add or Take Away:

Deut. 4:2 –Also says not to add or take away

Ezek. 37: 15-20 Stick of Judah + Stick of Ephraim

John 21:25 ... if they should be written every one, the world could not contain

Rev. 22: 18-19: Don't add or take away

- First of all, the scripture says not to add to “the book of this prophecy” meaning the book, or letter of Revelation. It is not referring to the bible nor can it because at that time, the Bible, as we know it today, had not even been compiled nor did it exist yet. Furthermore, the book of Revelation was not the last book in the bible to be written, the gospel of John was. (The New Testament is not in chronological order). Even if this was the case, then we would also have to accept the statement in Deuteronomy 4:2, making everything written after that void. Also the scripture is referring to the fact that “man” can't add to or take away, but never implies that God can't. Ironically enough if we look at the last verse in the bible chronologically in John 21:25, it says that all the books in the world written could not contain all the things that Christ did.

Plural Marriage:

Acts 3:21 – Restitution of all things

Matt 17:11 – Elias truly shall come and restore all things...

Eph. 1:10 - He might gather together ... all things in Christ

Christs baptism -> John 1:29-34, Luke 3:21-22, Mark 1: 9-11, Matt 3:13-17

Baptism for the Dead

1 Cor. 15:29 ... Else what shall they do, which are baptized for the dead...

If you believe in the atonement, you have to believe in vicarious work, because Christ stood in place for everyone, not only us, but for the dead, even those that hadn't heard of Christ that were dead. Else why would he die for the sins of the whole world if he didn't intend to give everyone a chance. We understand more about this topic as we read about how Christ taught the spirits in prison and the gospel was preached to the dead Why it be preached to the dead if salvation could not come to those that are dead? -> 1 Pet. 3:18-19, 1 Pet. 4:16

Bible, Prophecies to be fulfilled:

Rev. 11:3-19 ...I will give unto my 2 witnesses ... these 2 prophets.
